ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Prof. A. A. Williams and wife have moved into their new home on East Main street.

Jefferson E. Slimp writes from Hiram, O., in behalf of a friend who desires some information in regard to the Valparaiso school.

Miss Edith Ballenger, a former student in the College, has taken a position in St. Louis. She expects to follow the teacher's profession.

Joseph T. Robert, Principal, The Robert Correspondence School of Parliamentary Law, Chicago, was a visitor at the College October 10th.

W. C. Palmer is connected with the government agricultural department at Washington. Mr. Palmer was a Classic graduate in '95 and had finished the Commercial and Scientific previous to completing the Classic course. He is a brother of E. A. Palmer, president of the Y. M. C. A.

H. H. Rangeler writes from Perry, Iowa, that it is probable he will not teach during the coming winter. He will move to Ohio and pursue some literary work which takes the most of his time. Has an engagement with a lecture bureau for a few dates. Is reading some law and expects to take a regular Law course at some future time.

C. E. Morgan writes that he has met several old students from Valparaiso College since he has been at Mohler, Idaho. Miss Larson, who was graduated with the Scientific class a few years ago, lives near Mohler. She has changed her name, however. She is Mrs. Peterson now; married to a prosperous farmer and they are doing well. Mr. Lanham, who was graduated in the Law about five years ago, is located at Lewiston and is doing fine. He hears of a number of others, but does not remember their names.

E. Myrtle Plant and Mattie Haughton Lindsey, of Portales, N. M., former students, take great pride in recommending Valparaiso College to their friends. They have just been instrumental in sending Miss Stella B. Seymour, who gives promise of being a valuable addition to the student forces. Having had a course in Elocution in the Mary Baldwin school, Staunton, Va., Miss Seymour would be a desirable member for either the Crescent or Star societies.

Many of the teachers and officers in the College remember Miss Stella Cornell, who was in school here several years ago. She is Mrs. Geo. Murray now. We saw a copy of the New Century Review, published in Dillon, Mont., in which Mrs. Murray's father, Craig Cornell, is given a prominent mention. Mr. Cornell lives within a mile of Dillon, on a well-improved 1,200 acre ranch, and his daughter resides with her husband in what is known as the Blacktail Valley.

J. W. Moffett, who is well remembered as a genial student in the College two or three years ago, is now an attorney and counsellor at law in Huntington, Ind. He practices in all courts, draws up deeds, notes, mortgages and all kinds of legal papers; gives special attention to collections, drainage, receiverships, assignees, bankruptcy, decedent's estates, guardianships, real estate, partition, quieting of titles, examinations of records and abstracts of title; and compromising of suits. Is also local agent for three insurance companies, and altogether a busy man. His nephew, Earnest Williams, of Makin, Ind., will enter the College at the beginning of the First Winter term.

MISS MANTIE A. BALDWIN,
Professor of Literature and Rhetoric in The Valparaiso College.

Messrs. Julius Bruno and Aracalia Luzunarias, two Porto Rican students, entered school since our last issue. This makes seven Porto Ricans who are in school here. There is one Cuban, Mr. Cordero, from Key West.

J. E. Kerr, who was graduated from the Valparaiso school with the Pharmacy class of '00, is now a member of the Senior class in the Western Pennsylvania Medical College at Pittsburg. He expects to practice medicine in Pennsylvania after he has finished the course.

About a hundred old Valparaiso students held a reunion and banquet in Spokane, Wash., the 11th of October. In telling about the event R. A. Heritage uses a letter head on which is printed an excellent view of a section of Riverside ave., Spokane, and pictures from Upper Spokane Falls and Cedar river. Mr. Heritage was for a number of years director of the Music department of Valparaiso College, and is held in memory dear by the old students and teachers. His studio on Riverside avenue is headquarters for former students of the Valparaiso College who are now in the northwest, and it was there the plan for holding a reunion was formed.

The first Winter term will open November 11th.

My picture work is my picture talk. Bird Simon, College Photographer.

D. D. Feldman has charge of the department of Mathematics in the Wilkes-Barre, Pa., High school.

Oscar Martin, county superintendent of Campbell county, S. Dak., schools, reports a scarcity of teachers.

Miss Margaret Slatterly, who was here last summer, has organized a college of her own at Lewiston, Idaho.

Mrs. S. P. Corboy and infant son have returned from a visit with Mrs. Corboy's parents at Franklin, Ky.

Wm. Williams, of Wallace, Idaho, was here the week of the 13th, visiting his children, Almeda and Ed Williams.

Miss Josie A. Meyer closed a three-months school at Little Bear, Wyo., October 2d, and opened another October 6th.

Miss Bessie Lancaster writes from Wynne, Ark., that she is succeeding in all of her undertakings, and expects to be back in school next year.

Miss Pearl Needham writes back from Hammond to have the address on her paper changed to that place. Expects to visit Valparaiso about November 1st.

Elmore Elliott, a graduate of Valparaiso College and a practicing physician in Chicago, who has been very ill with typhoid fever, is convalescing. He is a son of Dr. Elliott, of this place.

L. E. Hildebrand did not stay at Berea, Ohio, but has entered the Indiana State University at Bloomington. In a letter under date of the 15th inst. he says he has prospects of getting about two years credit for his Valpo work.

Miss Sarah Dugan, of Elwood, a graduate of the College, expresses a tender feeling for her Alma Mater in a letter making inquiries about the Teachers Preparatory course. She is desirous of having her brother take the course.

C. R. Emerson, who was here during the winter of '99 and '00, expects to return to Valparaiso. In writing from Sniffels, Colo., he says that he will be happy when he can return to Old Valpo and complete what he had staked out.

J. D. Dougherty writes from Chicago recommending three of his Pennsylvania friends for admission to Valparaiso College. Mr. Dougherty is connected with the general offices of the Griffin Wheel Co., at 503 Western Union Bldg., Chicago.

Dan Johnston, who left school May 20th, has a good position as stenographer and exchange clerk for the First National bank at Moscow, Idaho. He likes his work very well, but is thinking of coming back next spring to take some advanced work in Shorthand and Bookkeeping.

Miss Edna Huntington a pupil of Edmund W. Chaffee and a member of the graduating Music class, assisted by Miss Eleanor Hicks, reader, a pupil of Mrs. Harold L. Butler, gave a closing recital in the Auditorium Wednesday afternoon, October 22d.

Dr. W. L. Lowder, a student in the Valparaiso school in '79 and '80, has written an article for a Kentucky medical journal. The subject is, "The Passing of the Historic Old McDowell Building at Danville, Ky.," and the diction and literary merit are praiseworthy. During the twenty-two or twenty-three years since Dr. Lowder left Valparaiso, many of his old classmates and teachers have joined the Nations underground." He is a practicing physician at McKinley, Ky.

Mrs. Robnett, superintendent of schools in the county of which Lewiston, Idaho, is the seat, reports that there are now on file in her office fifteen applications for teachers to supply vacancies in county districts. By the provisions of an Idaho law, only teachers who hold certificates secured at an examination can teach. Under present conditions, when there are not enough teachers holding certificates to supply the schools, there appears to be no method of relief. The terms of school in the country districts average about five months and the salaries range from $40 to $45 per month.

We are in receipt of a letter from Miss Katheryn Larson, in which she tells the sad news of the death of her sister, Mrs. Carrie Larson Janson. Mrs. Janson resided at Seattle, Wash., and her death occurred there April 15th of this year. She is well remembered by her host of friends with whom she was associated when she was a member of the Pharmacy class, from which she was graduated in 1900. Miss Katheryn Larson was graduated from the Fine Arts department the same year.

P. J. and J. P. Boyle, who are known as the star ball players in the Indiana State University at Bloomington, were in town the latter part of September. They were on their way from their home at Brainard, Minn., to the State University, and were accompanied by their sister, Miss Cissy Boyle, who entered Valparaiso College for three years of study.

L. Crego left the 15th for Easton, Ills., to take a position as teacher in the public schools. Mr. Crego and wife returned from the Philippine Islands last July. They had been there about a year as teachers employed by the U. S. government, and relate some interesting experiences. Mrs. Crego is a student in Valparaiso College at present.

As the winter months are not very busy ones for him, Mr. Marshall tells us he is going to close out his pictures of buildings, Sager's Lake, railroad and other local views, and leave Valparaiso this term. If you are wanting anything in this line, see him at 30 S. Locust st. The editor can assure you of courteous treatment.

Miss Jessie Ruby enjoyed Valparaiso and the school so well when she was here last summer that she is already looking forward with pleasant anticipation to the time when she can come back next summer. Miss Ruby is teaching an eight-months' school in her home town, Arkansas City, Kan. Has the first three grades.

PICTURES.—One can hardly get along—feels lost now-a-days—without them. What's more, you want the best. Mr. Marshall, 30 S. Locust st., has the largest and best collection of local views to be found in the city.

Prof. and Mrs. Kinsey are visiting in Eastern and Southern Ohio. Mrs. Kinsey writes to her friends here that she is regaining her former health so fast that when she marries again her second husband will be a young man.

There were ten graduating classes in the College last year. The official class pictures of nine of these classes was made at my studio. This means that my work is appreciated. Bird Simon, College Photographer.

Willis T. Meade, formerly proprietor of the College Hill photograph gallery, was in town the 12th, accompanied by his wife. Willis is now with the photograph department of A. M. Rothchild & Co., Chicago.

Robert Armstrong, a student in the Pharmacy department, has taken a position as clerk in Hoyman's clothing store. Mr. Armstrong is the efficient Pharmacy correspondent to The College Current.

Miss Pearle Jones has ordered the address of her paper changed from Chesenang, Mich., to Alton, N. Y.

THE AMERICAN COLLEGE OF MEDICINE AND SURGERY,

Medical Department of Valparaiso College,

Opened October 1st, 1902, With a Larger Attendance Than was Ever Accorded a New Medical School in Chicago.

The American College of Medicine and Surgery, the Medical department of Valparaiso College, was opened October 1st, 1902, with imposing ceremonies. The enrollment was larger than that of any new medical college which was ever opened in Chicago, numbering one hundred and thirty-five students. This department offers superior advantages to those desiring to pursue the study of medicine, and at considerable reduction in expense. The course is so arranged that one or two years of the work set forth in the curriculum may be completed by resident study at Valparaiso, and the remaining years spent in the American College, which is located in the best clinical district in the city of Chicago.

Valparaiso Graduate Honored.

Luther B. Bratton, a graduate of the Northern Indiana Normal School in 1893, has been honored by the republicans of Kankakee county, Illinois, with the nomination for county superintendent of schools, and is deserving of election. Mr. Bratton is well remembered here by his teachers and friends as a tireless worker and as being conscientious in whatever he undertakes. While here he distinguished himself by being able to carry twice the amount of work of the average student. He ranked high in his studies and was a general favorite. Mr. Bratton is a man of the highest moral character, honest, affable, refined and determined to succeed. Should the voters of Kankakee county see fit to favor him with an election, there will be no question but that the supervision of their schools for the next four years will be in clean and able hands.

Elected Correspondents

The Star society, the Crescent society and the Pharmacy class have elected College Current representatives. Their names appear in connection with the writings under the separate heads "Among the Societies" and "In the Classes." Where regular correspondents have not been elected, the news is gathered from various sources and placed under its appropriate head. The other societies and class organizations are invited to include a Correspondent to the College Current in their list of officers.

VALPARAISO, IND., - - OCTOBER, 1902

A prominent educator has said that modern education consists of the three L's rather than the three R's. They are, the Laboratory, the Lecture and the Library.

If each householder along the paved streets on College Hill would make it a point to clean the streets immediately in front of his property, the result would be extremely gratifying. Who will be the one to set the example?

The University of Chicago Weekly, has been discontinued, and in its place come a daily newspaper and a monthly literary magazine. The first number of the Daily Maroon reached our table October 1st: It is a four-column folio, printed on good stock. The paper is well edited and enjoys a fair advertising patronage in the start. The initial number of the Monthly Maroon will be issued about October 25th. The purpose of the magazine will be to print anything of literary worth that the editors may be able to obtain from the students.

VALPARAISO COLLEGE BUILDINGS, GROUPED.

On the front cover page of this month's Current we print an excellent half-tone picture showing all of the main College buildings, grouped. In this way we are able to show the buildings on one plate, and at the same time not detract from the appearance of the individual buildings.

THE RIGHT OF EMINENT DOMAIN.

Answering an inquiry for information regarding the power of eminent domain, the exercise of which, both as to the anthracite mines and the railroads operated in connection with them, was recommended in connection with the recent coal strike, it may be briefly stated that it is the power inherent in a sovereign state to take private property for public uses. This is a very ancient right or prerogative of sovereignty which is exercised in the United States both by the nation and the states under the federal constitution, which by the fifth amendment protects its exercise with the provision that "private property" shall not "be taken for public use without just compensation."

The determination of the propriety of exercising the right is exclusively within the discretion of congress or the legislature respectively as it is exercised for the nation or state, and the courts have held that there is no limitation upon the power of the legislature so long as the purpose for which the property is taken is a public one and just compensation has been paid or tendered to the owner.

The construction of railway lines throughout the United States has only been possible through the power delegated to private corporations, and this is but an extension of its exercise by the federal government in the opening, maintenance and improvement of "post roads" which congress was directly empowered by the constitution "to establish."

Only the national and interstate character of the public use for which the condemnation of coal mines or railways might be invoked would warrant the assertion of the power of eminent domain in respect to them by congress. —Chicago Record-Herald.

DUE TO OUR EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM.

The present commanding position of the United States as a nation, the wonderful achievements of the American people in naval architecture, their skill in war, the high record they have made in diplomacy, in literature, in art, and all the things that mark the advance of the nation to the first place in the world, are the fruits of the grand system of education, from the primary department to the higher institutions of learning, which it has been our policy to foster in the most liberal manner for a century or more. That "Knowledge is power" was never more strikingly illustrated than in the American people. This fact—all of these facts—ought to be an inspiration, if inspiration were lacking, to our educators and to the youth of the land to make the highest and best use of the opportunities which the liberality of the people affords to all. And a noble characteristic of the American people, woven into their fibre through the influence of our institutions, is that with the advance of knowledge comes moderation and a spirit of justice that render them conspicuous among the nations of the earth.—Brookville American.

OUR FACULTY SERIES.

On Page 3 of this issue we print an excellent half-tone picture of Miss Mantie E. Baldwin, Professor of Literature and Rhetoric in the Valparaiso College. Miss Baldwin has been connected with the Valparaiso school ever since its foundation, and thousands of pupils who have been in her classes testify to the thoroughness of her teaching. This series of Faculty pictures was begun in the January, 1902, issue of the College Current, at the earnest request of a large number of our subscribers.

Look at your address label and see to what date your subscription is paid.

No subscriber should think of going home without first calling at the office and having the address of his paper changed.

To accommodate our patrons who room on the west side of the Hill, we have made arrangements to have the Current on sale at W. A. Hick's grocery.

Given a Leave of Absence.

Prof. Cloud left the 10th for Baltimore, where he has entered the Johns Hopkins University. Mr. Cloud was given a leave of absence from his teaching in Valparaiso College in order that he might take a year's work in the famous Eastern university with a view to securing the Master of Philosophy degree. He will teach Physics during his stay at Johns Hopkins.

"The Jolly Student."

We are in receipt of a copy of a new march song and two-step entitled "The Jolly Student." The words of the song are characteristic of the college student everywhere, and the music is bright and catchy. The Zickel Company, of Detroit, Mich., are the publishers.

To be Taken With a Grain of Salt.

One of the well known Junior Law students brought us a photograph of an ear of corn the other day, a reproduction of which appears at the head of this article. This certainly proves that he was a good farmer, and we do not doubt in the least but that he will make an equally good lawyer.

"The Mossback."

The poem "The Mossback," which was read by Chas. G. Erickson at the special meeting of the Star society Saturday evening, the 18th, made a decided hit. Many parts of the poem were so true to life that we have asked and secured Mr. Erickson's permission to publish it in the November College Current. If you heard the rendition of the poem you will want a copy, and if you did not hear it you will want a copy anyhow.

Brilliant Record of a Newspaper Man.

The success which has attended William E. Curtis, the famous correspondent of The Chicago Record-Herald, is rarely attained by newspaper writers. Beginning his career in Chicago in 1872 as a reporter he rapidly arose to the position of managing editor. He resigned that position on receiving a government appointment as secretary of the South American commission. Mr. Curtis traveled extensively in Central and South America while in this position, producing several popular volumes as the result of his literary labors. Afterward coöperating with Secretary of State James G. Blaine, Mr. Curtis organized the work of the bureau of American republics, with the result that he was placed in charge of that organization, and at the World's Columbian Exposition he distinguished himself by his labors as the executive head of the Latin-American department. As correspondent of the Chicago Record-Herald Mr. Curtis' travels have carried him into every section of the United States as well as into all quarters of the globe. His China and Japan letters were published in book form; likewise his letters from England,

Germany and France, as well as those written during his travels in Mexico and South America.

No newspaper correspondent possesses the facility shown by Mr. Curtis in writing on any of the diversified subjects embraced in his correspondence and making it luminous. Nor is any correspondent followed so closely year after year by the thousands of readers of the Chicago Record-Herald. On his recent trip to the Holy Land Mr. Curtis' letters have been read more closely than ever, and his description of that interesting section of the globe as it appears today have been quoted everywhere.

A daily letter from Mr. Curtis appears in The Chicago Record-Herald.

AMONG THE SOCIETIES

[All of the Society organizations are invited to elect a regular Correspondent to the College Current.]-EDITOR.]

THE CRESCENT SOCIETY.

It was the first term of the second year of the Valparaiso school that the Star society was organized. It was in the latter part of 1874 or about the beginning of 1875 that there was a disagreement in the society, and a number of the members withdrew and organized a new society called the Crescent.

The first meeting was held early in February of that year, and the first president was J. C. Collins, at present living in Tonganoxo, Ohio. At that time there was a small room where the hall which goes up to the present Crescent hall is now located. This was a room about fourteen by sixteen feet, and there is where the society met until the west wing of the Old College building was erected. Then they were given the attic of third floor of that wing as a hall.

When they returned at the beginning of the next school year they could find nothing of their furniture, and the treasurer said that the amount of money which remained in the treasury had been stolen, so that the society was left without furniture or funds. There was but one lady member of the society who returned at the beginning of the next school year, and she refused to attend unless there were others. To supply that deficiency a number of the boys proposed the names of their best girls, paid their fees and they were elected members. In that way the society was resumed at the beginning of the third school year. To supply the deficiency of furniture a number of the members contributed from their own personal means, and Mr. Brown told the society that if they found chairs anywhere that they thought were theirs, to take them, and of course they found enough to supply the two dozen which the society had formerly owned.

A young man was living in the city at that time who was a professional theatrical performer. He joined the society, and with his assistance and instruction a number of plays were put on the stage in the city opera house, which netted the society sufficient funds to place them out of debt, and a good amount in the treasury.

The room that is now occupied as the Society hall was formerly the Commercial department of the school. In 1876 the room that is now occupied as the Library was opened up as the Commercial department, leaving the present Crescent hall vacant. Through the influence of a member of the Crescent society, Mr. Brown gave to the Society the use of the hall that they now occupy, and donated twenty dollars, the same amount which he had given to the Star, toward fitting it up. With the money that was in the treasury, a number of personal donations, and money that was afterward earned by another play, the present Crescent hall was fitted up at the expense of about three hundred dollars. That was in the early part of 1877, since which time the Crescent has been successful both in financial and literary work.

THOMAS R. KNOX,
Crescent Editor.

Members of the Crescent society will present the farce, Freezing a Mother-in-Law, Friday evening of the Ninth week. The farce, Her Only Fault will be given the Friday evening of the Tenth week.

The Society is better prepared than ever to give interesting programs, as they have added some material improvements, among which are footlights and some gas arrangement by which the hall will be more perfectly lighted than ever before.

On Friday evening, October 3d, occurred the regular social of the

OUR PICTURES have grown in favor from year to year. Friends for whom we did work four years ago, we are doing work for now. We hear from them in every State in the Union.

'TIS THE WORK that satisfies, not the price.

Have you a satisfactory piece of jewelry or bric-a-brac? It's an even guess you can't tell what it cost. Same with pictures. If they are "bum," (pardon) you will remember the price; but you won't with ours. They are different, increasing in value and pleasure-giving qualities.

WE WANT YOU to have some of them; then you will want more; that's why we are here.

We are waiting to show you our work.

Crescent society. Despite the weather which unfortunately kept many away, the attendance by members was good. Quite a number of visitors were also present. Games and music were the principal features, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present, as they departed for their homes, felt that the evening had been one long to be remembered by all.

The first special program of the Crescent society for this term was rendered Friday evening, October 10th, to a large and appreciative audience. Among the productions was an oration by Roy Ayers, a reading by Mrs. Eva Bondy, who kindly responded to an encore; a sketch by Tom Polk and Eleanor Hicks was very creditably given and was highly appreciated by those present; and the selections given by Misses Harris, Timmons, Wade and Salisbury showed careful preparation and were enjoyed by all.

THE STAR SOCIETY.

The members of the Star literary society are very much encouraged with the present standing of the society. The past term has been especially good, considering that it was the first term of the school year. The officers have all worked faithfully, especially the vice-president, Miss Hannah Lawyer. The president's chair has been well occupied by Mr. Frank Randall. At present the society is out of debt, and is making arrangements to improve the general appearance of Star hall. Lights, wall paper and carpet are under consideration.

The special mid-term program of the Society was given in Recital hall Saturday evening, October 18th. It consisted of a vocal solo by Thomas Polk, an excellent oration by President F. S. Randall, a vocal solo by Miss Grace Parkinson, an original poem by Chas G. Erickson on the subject "The Mossback," a cornet solo by J. C. Alexander, select reading by Miss Eleanor Martindale.

One feature of the term's work was the offering of a prize of $2.00 to the member presenting the largest number of names for membership. As a result of this contest the membership has been very much increased.

The Society is expecting to secure a noted lecturer for sometime the First or Second week of next term.

Good order has been a particular feature of the Star meetings this term.

The Star society will give a social Saturday evening, October 25th.
W. H. COPELAND, Star Society Editor.

ILLINOIS SOCIETY.

The Illinois society gave a social in Star and Crescent hall Friday evening, October 17th. Instrumental music by the Illinois orchestra and songs by the Illinois male quartet, were special features. Refreshments were served.

The Illinois society is in a prosperous condition, and the attendance is larger that it has been for a long time.

CATHOLIC SOCIETY.

The Catholic society will give a social in Recital hall the evening of November 4th. The program will be mostly of a musical nature, and the playing of games will be an important feature of the evening's entertainment.

Y. M. C. A.

The membership contest closed Saturday the 18th.

The Y. M. C. A. will postpone their banquet until near the close of the term on account of the coming of International Secretary the 25th.

The Y. M. C. A. has an excellent quartet, composed of Messrs. Croft, Hemphill, Hillstrom, Dodson. They have been favoring us with some fine vocal music.

The noon-day meetings have been having larger attendance than ever before, and the membership is larger than at any corresponding time in the history of the association.

John R. Hardcastle, the chairman of the membership committee, left the 9th of October for Dunkirk, Ind., where he will work at his trade, that of a glass cutter. Mr. Hardcastle was a great worker in the Association, and while here made many friends. He expects to return in about two terms. The Association wishes him Godspeed in his work.

E. T. Colton, International secretary of College Y. M. C. A.'s, will be here Saturday and Sunday, the 25th and 26th. This will be a great treat to our young people, and one which will only be enjoyed by about three colleges in the State this year. Prof. Colton will speak before the Y. M. C. A. at times and places which will be announced later. All should avail themselves of the opportunity to hear him, as he is said to be a strong speaker. His work as International secretary is especially among college men.

THE SOUTHERN SOCIETY.

The Southern society is composed of students whose homes are south of the Mason and Dixon line. They hold weekly meetings in the Law building on Saturday evenings at 6:30. D. M. Cooper is president of the society.

The Society will give a social and reception at K. P. hall the evening of October 24th. A fine time is expected.

BOGARTE ELOCUTION SOCIETY.

The Bogarte Elocution Society has elected officers as follows: President, J. A. Kitchen; vice-president, Miss Myrtle A. Hines; treasurer, Mrs. Katherine Taylor; secretary, Miss Mae Frink.

Mr. R. C. Lawrence left Valparaiso the first of the month and entered King's school of oratory at Pittsburg. Mr. Lawrence had become a popular entertainer while here. By his gentlemanly manner he made the lasting friendship of all with whom he came in contact. In a letter which we received from Mr. Lawrence October 9th, he says that he will begin giving recitals for Prof. King in the near future. In that way he will earn his expenses and a nice little income beside.

Practical Bookkeeping.

In another column of this paper will be found an advertisement for Prof. C. M. Benton's "Practical Bookkeeping." The book has been found to be so eminently fitted for use in the teaching of bookkeeping in High schools that the sales have been extremely large. Write to the author for prices.

IN THE CLASSES

[The various class organizations in the College are invited to include a Correspondent to the College Current in their list of officers.]—EDITOR.

PHARMACY FACTS.

G. Mundt got his hair cut—at last.

Why don't John Aimone go over to Columbia hall any more?

The class in Toxicology, under Timmons, began urinary analysis October 20th.

Members of the class are all very glad to see F. P. Dawson able to be around again.

The Pharmacy band will give a concert in the Auditorium October 30th. Everybody is invited.

Ed Hyle claims to be the Beau Brummel of the Pharmacs. Well, Ed does look pretty sporty in his new outfit.

"Lots of very unimportant men have very long names. There are also many very important men with very short names."—J. N. Roe.

Some of our Pharmacs had better take a little breath perfume before they ask any young ladies if they may accompany them to their homes.

F. W. Miers, a graduate of last August, has accepted a position as drug clerk at Ochevedan, Iowa. He sends his regards to all old acquaintances.

It is claimed that the popular tuba player of the Pharmacy band Sammy Ackelson will leave to take a position in Sousa's band. We wish him success.

The Pharmacy band played at the opening of the American Medical College. Their music was very much appreciated. Who says the Pharmacy class isn't the only class?

"He says most who says the least," is as true respecting photographers as other people. Visit my studio, over Salisbury's music store, and see my work. Bird Simon, College Photographer.

Henry Lutyens and Herbert Fry, of the '02 class, were visitors on the Hill Sunday the 19th. Henry is taking a course at the American College of Medicine, and Herbert is working in a drug store in St. Louis.

C. Dykstra, the popular young clerk at the College Pharmacy, went snipe hunting a few nights ago, accompanied by a number of Pharmacs. Somehow or other they became separated and Dykstra got lost. He did not get in until 4:00 o'clock the next morning. He does not say how many snipe he caught.

The members of the Pharmacy Class have organized a football team. "Scrappy" John Aimone will play center. The team is composed of such veterans as Ackelson, G. Mundt, J. Meiners, Alexander and Armstrong, and others equally as good. After a few days' practice they will be ready to meet any class team on the Hill.

ROBERT ARMSTRONG, Correspondent.

SENIOR LAW BRIEFS.

The Seniors have adopted canes as their class emblem.

G. W. Tannahill, a graduate of the Law school several years ago, is practicing at Lewiston, Idaho.

Among those to come in since the last edition of the Current are, Messrs. Hughes, Wilkins, Ahrens, Edwards, Johnson, Bradshaw and Talbert.

Students, you want a few dozen of Marshall's photographs, to remember your school associations and surroundings in Valparaiso. See his display at 30 S. Locust st.

Joseph A. Kitchen made a business trip to Chicago the 14th. Mr. Kitchen is one of our students who is also a business man, having the management of the Y. M. C. A. boarding club.

R. V. Williams returned October 9th from his home in Meade, Ky. Mr. Williams was called home on account of the illness of his father, and we are glad to say that the elder Mr. Williams is improved.

Wirt Worden, graduate of '01, made us a call the 6th. He is now practicing at Laporte, and we are informed that he is meeting with his share of success. Mr. Worden carried away the highest honors of his class, being chosen the Memorial day orator.

Homer Stanton spent Saturday and Sunday, the 11th and 12th, at his home in Knox. He was accompanied by Roy Ayers. Mr. Stanton has business at home more often than he did last year. If it's a marriage in sight, I guess we have no kick coming, for the Colonel approves marriages.

Louis G. Campbell, who was graduated from the Law school in '95, is the republican candidate for state senator in the twenty-ninth senatorial district of Colorado. Mr. Campbell located at Cripple Creek in April, 1896, and has been practicing law ever since as a member of the firm of Graham & Campbell.

WITH THE MUSICIANS.

The front of Music hall is being brightened by a coat of paint.

Miss Henrietta Smith, of the Music class, visited in Detroit, Mich., on Saturday and Sunday, October 16th and 17th.

The next event in the series of lectures will be given October 23d by Mr. Chaffee. His subject is, "The Pianoforte Sonata."

Miss Effie Mahon, formerly a student in the musical department, will return at the beginning of next term to resume work in Voice and Piano.

Mr. Samuel Farlow, who was graduated in Voice and Piano last August, is director in the Northwest Missouri College of Music, Albany, Missouri.

Blake H. Ozias, who was given a Music Teacher's certificate and the B. S. degree by Valparaiso College last August, did not enter the State University at Columbus, Ohio, as he intended. It is probable that he will teach Latin, German and Literature in an Indiana town this coming winter.

COMMERCIAL AND STENOGRAPHIC.

S. H. Austin was in Chicago October 10th.

Miss Katherine Muller was visiting in Chicago all of last week.

R. L. Langer, Commercial '03, was a business caller in Chicago last week.

Jos. Anderson, of '03 Commercial, was a business caller in Chicago the 27th ult.

Miss Della Meikle is stenographer in the office of the Citizens Coal Co. at Butte, Mont.

Ralph Leonard spent Saturday and Sunday, the 11th and 12th, with his parents at Plymouth.

Miss Ina Double thinks of returning from Ossian, Ind., to take Phonography and one hour a day on the mandolin.

The Commercial students who entered at the beginning of the year, are now ready to go into the Actual Business room.

Some of the Commercial students have received class caps. They are made of a fine dark blue material, with the initials "V. C." worked in gold braid on the front.

Wm. Nies and Fred Summers gave a smoker at their rooms, 45 South East st., Friday evening the 10th. Quite a number of students were present, and all report a fine time.

We are in receipt of a copy of the "Legend of Sleepy Hollow," with the compliments of Mr. Jerome B. Howard. The book is printed in the Easy Reporting style of Phonography, in accordance with the Manual of Phonography by Benn Pitman and Jerome B. Howard, and is remarkable for the beauty and simplicity of its phrasing.

Miss Elizabeth Ross has charge of the typewriting department at Leech's Actual Business College at Greensburg, Pa. She writes that she does not like the surroundings at Greensburg as well as she did those at Ocean Grove. The change from a clean coast town to the dirt and smoke of an inland manufacturing town does not suit her tastes. She says that she enjoyed herself so much while here that she is continually talking Valparaiso to her friends.

JUNIOR LAW.

What's the matter with the Seniors and their canes?

The Senior lawyers have acknowledged the Juniors' superiority.

What was the matter with the Juniors the night the policeman stopped them?

In case your father-in-law reclaims your wife, ask Boland to get out a writ of replevin.

There are about sixty members of the Junior class. Fourteen states are represented. Illinois leads them all in point of numbers.

A. L. Watts was called to his home the 16th on account of the serious illness of his brother, who is a prominent lawyer in Peoria, Ills.

The Junior lawyers' literary society is getting along nicely. They hold meetings on Wednesday evenings, and the programs have been good.

The Junior lawyers are distinguished in many ways, but the mark which makes them most conspicuous among the other men on the Hill, is a blue sweater with red letters and figures "L '04."

SCIENTIFIC NOTES.

Ira Wood, Scientific '01, has taken up the study of medicine at Kansas City, Mo.

H. O. Jones, of the Scientific class of '01, is now among the new students at the American College of Medicine and Surgery, Chicago.

W. A. Buscho, Scientific '01, who is attending the Chicago College of Dental Surgery, has just entered the Junior year and is getting along fine. He made his friends on the Hill a pleasant visit the 4th and 5th. While here he ordered the College Current sent to his Chicago address so that he may keep posted on the Valparaiso school affairs.

T. W. Keenan, of the Scientific and Special Mathematics classes of '97 in the Valparaiso College, has been vice president of the Western Normal College at Shenandoah, Iowa, for the past four years. Is also instructor in Higher Mathematics in that school. In writing to renew his subscription to the College Current, he adds that they have the largest attendance at the Western Normal of any during the four years he has been connected with the institution. Mr. Keenan was at the head of the Mathematical department of the Lincoln, Neb., Normal University the first year after he left Valparaiso.

An exchange says that lots of disagreeable people think they have just enough temper to take their own part.

This month we are sending out a number of sample copies of the Current to graduates from the College and friends whom we hope to interest in the publication. May we not enter your name on our books for a year's subscription.

Chas. Woodbridge, who was here in '98, is partner with his father in the manufacture of a combination fence at Paris, Ill. The firm handles all kind of coal and fencing.

Miss Ada Forest, a student in the College, died from typhoid fever September 30th. The remains were sent to Bowling Green, Ohio, her home, for burial. Miss Forest was taken ill before coming here.

The members of the Senior and Junior Law classes marched to the Memorial opera house in a body Saturday evening, October 4th, to hear the speech by J. H. Conroy, the democratic candidate for state senator.

The many friends of Frank Euler who were with him here last winter, will be pained to hear of the accident which befell him the first of this month. While feeding his father's corn shredder near Evansville he suffered the misfortune of having his left hand cut off by the machine.

A box social was given at Hurlburt October 10th, for the benefit of the school library and for the purpose of raising money to help pay for a new bell. C. L. Quinn, a Valparaiso College man, is teacher of the school. Ray Beaman, another Valpo. man, who is principal of the Boone Grove school, furnished a good elocutionary program.

Sanford L. Weddle was in town Wednesday, the 8th. Mr. Weddle was graduated from the Law school with the Law class of '02, and shortly after Commencement he opened an office at Indiana Harbor. His card reads: "S. L. Weddle, Lawyer, Indiana Harbor, Ind. Office: Frank Building." He is dealing extensively in building lots at the new town on the lake, and reports that the business of the town is on the boom.

As a matter of reminiscence we recall that Mrs. Kathryn Ertz Bowden, who gave an illustrated lecture in the Christian church October 10th, was secretary of the Scientific class of '97 during the last term of the year. Mrs. Bowden and her husband have traveled extensively over Europe, and have seen the original Passion Play at Oberammergau. Her lecture and illustrations at the Christian church were based on the famous tragedy, and were without doubt the finest of the kind ever given in this city.

Cards have been received at this office announcing the marriage of Mr. Andrew O. Brock to Miss Mae Howard. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents in Kansas City, Kansas, October 8th. Mr. Brock is well remembered as an extraordinarily popular student when he was here. He had charge of the Y. M. C. A. boarding club and made many friends. His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Howard, of Kansas City, and is a young lady of rare accomplishments. The young couple will be at home in Wauwatosa, Wis., after December first.
